

Course Name: Educational Planning.

Course No. : (701720).

Credit Hours: (3) Hours.

Course Description:

This course deals with a general presentation of educational planning, its goals, objectives, and types. It also includes introducing students to how to assess needs according to the Kaufman system and methods for predicting student numbers and planning for educational project management with a focus on methods of interim evaluation of plans through & BERT LOB, and methods of final evaluation through future indicators of education, and student training Based on a practical application of the educational planning process based on the theoretical material.