

Course Name: Evaluation in Educational Management.

Course No. : (701791).

Credit Hours: (3) Hours.

Course Description:

This course introduces learners to the concept of administrative evaluation in education, its importance, objectives, and fields, such as evaluating the performance of employees, programs, resources, the relationship with the local community, evaluation, its types and aspects, planning, developing, designing, and managing scientific evaluation processes in education, and practical evaluation of the management of distance education and blended learning.