

Course Title	Human Rights	Course number	0000122
Pre- requisite	_____	Course Type	University elective requirement
Department	Humanities	Credit hours	3

Course Description:-

The course includes the definition of human rights Historical over view, evolution types, human rights application, international covenants, interval constitutions.

The article deals with the development of international recognition of human rights under the united nation universal declaration international agreements conceptualization analytical concepts realistic clarification of means the course deals with the rights of first generation, such as the right to life and the right of the second generation such as the right to work and the third generation such as the right of the environment, international means.

Course Objectives:-

- The student is aware of the importance of human rights and the extent of adherence to the rules and violation.
- Recognition of human rights.
- Know the mechanisms of protecting human rights.
- Developing the intellectual and intellectual abilities of the student.

Teaching methods:-

1-Theoretical explanation in the style of criticism, analysis and rooting.

2-Adopting the curriculum between the teacher and the student.

3-The student presents are port on topic with discussion.

4-Lectures for students at a rate of 3 credit hours per week during the semester.

5-Discussion dialogue during the lecture.

Examinations and evaluation criteria :-

Evaluation Criteria	Mark	History
First Exam	20%	Determined by the college administration
Second Exam	20%	Determined by the college administration
Preparation Duties and research	20%	Determined by the college administration
Final Exam	40%	Determined by the college administration

Attend Lectures:-

Students must adhere to the attendance of the lectures according to the date stated and the place specified during the registration of the student in accordance with the text of article 110 of the instructions for the granting of the bachelor's degree which does not allow the absence of more than 15% for the scheduled hours to ordinary students and students who represent the university in the activities allow them 20%.

Available educational resources:-

*General university library.

* Reading room at the faculty of law.

*Basic readings:- (It is determined by the course teacher).

Schedule of study plan:(Course outcome).

First week	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Introduction to human rights. -Learn about the history of human rights.
Second week	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -The historical development of human rights.
Third week	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Human rights in the modern era and the ancient times and the heavenly books. -Human rights in Islam.
Fourth week	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Human rights in the universal declaration of 1948 and the international covenants on civil political and economic rights of 1966. -Know the rights contained in this agreement.
Fifth week	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Human rights in Jordan as a national source.
Sixth week	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -united nations organization. - First exam.
Seventh week	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Human rights in international conventions.
Eight week	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Position of international organization.

Ninth week	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -General constitutional principle in Jordanian legislation. -International covenant civil and political rights.
Week ten	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -constitutional principles to ensure the preservation of human rights.
Week eleven	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - General constitutional principle in Jordanian legislation.
Twelfth week	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Legal and procedural controls in the preservation of human rights in Jordanian legislation.
The thirteenth week	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -The importance of the Jordanian constitution as a guarantee for the protection of human rights. - Second exam.
Fourteenth week	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - The importance of the principle of judicial control over the constitution.
Week fifteen	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -National human rights institutions.
Week sixteen	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Full review. -Respond students inquiries regarding the material.

References:-

-Human rights and international law.

-Human rights.

Dr. Ali AL jabali