

Course Name: The school administration.

Course No. : (701711).

Credit Hours: (3) Hours.

Course Description:

This course aims to introduce students to the school in terms of its material and immaterial characteristics and how to manage this school based on determining its needs, overall activities, buildings, curricula, and ways of dealing with the surrounding community. It also addresses the dimensions and models of the schooling process, defines the nature and characteristics of students, the extension of the school system's network of relationships, alternatives to school organization, the problems facing the school, and practical procedures for school management in distance learning and blended education.