

Course Name: Educational Administration.

Course No. : (701710).

Credit Hours: (3) Hours.

Course Description:

This course deals with the emergence, concept, importance and characteristics of educational administration. It aims to enlighten students with the meaning of theory, its nature, structure, role and importance to educational administrative performance, as well as exposing students to a comparison of classic approaches to systems management versus approaches based on alternative theory (possibility), systems thinking, systems theory and its necessity for effective dealing. With the management of educational systems, and the practical applications of educational management in distance education and blended education.