Faculty of Nursing

Program Intended Learning Outcomes (PILOs)

	PILOs	Outcome Competency Areas (Based on HEAC & JNC)	Learning Methods	Evaluation Methods
1	To provide safe, holistic, high-quality nursing care to individuals, families, communities, and populations across a health care continuum, across lifespan, and in all healthcare settings.	• Safe and Effective Care environment. • Health Promotion/prevention and Maintenance. • Physiological Integrity. • JNC Standard 1 (Performance). • JNC Standard 2 (Knowledge). • JNC Standard 7 (Provision of Clients Centered care).	• Interactive lectures • Open discussions • Given Scenarios • Skills demonstration. • Simulation. • Reflection. • Nursing care plans. • Clinical training. • Role play. • Concept mapping.	• Quizzes. • Clinical Performance Evaluation. • Oral and Written exams. • Nursing care plan. • Assignments. • Case discussion.
2	Communicates professionally by using interpersonal and technology skills to effectively engage with patients, families, communities, and populations, and in interprofessional collaboration.	• Safe and Effective Care Environment. • Psychosocial Integrity. • JNC Standard 3 (Relationships).	• Open discussions • Given Scenarios • Skills demonstration. • Simulation. • Reflection. • Role play.	• Clinical Performance Evaluation. • Oral exams. • Assignments.

3	Uses critical reasoning and problem-solving strategies to make decisions in evolving healthcare systems based on the synthesis of knowledge from social sciences, physical sciences, biological sciences, and nursing	• JNC Standard 2 (Knowledge). • JNC Standard 3 (Relationships). • JNC Standard 4 (Professional Development) • JNC Standard 5 (Leadership & Management).	• Interactive lectures • Open discussions • Given Scenarios • Skills demonstration. • Simulation. • Reflection. • Nursing care plans. • Clinical training. • Role play. • Concept mapping.	• Quizzes. • Clinical Performance Evaluation. • Oral and Written exams. • Nursing care plan. • Assignments
4	Apply organizational, leadership, and management concepts in providing nursing care for individuals, families, communities, and populations.	• Global and Health Economics • Therapeutic Communication. • Coping Mechanisms. • JNC Standard 5 (Leadership & Management). • JNC Standard 6 (Resources Utilization).	• Interactive lectures • Open discussions • Given Scenarios • Reflection. • Clinical training. • Role play.	• Quizzes. • Clinical Performance Evaluation. • Oral and Written exams. • Assignments
5	Demonstrate commitment to lifelong learning for personal and professional growth	• JNC Standard 2 (Knowledge). • JNC Standard 4 (Professional Development) • JNC Standard 5 (Leadership & Management).	• Interactive lectures • Open discussions • Given Scenarios • Skills demonstration. • Simulation. • Reflection. • Nursing care plans. • Clinical training. • Role play. • Concept mapping.	• Quizzes. • Clinical Performance Evaluation. • Oral and Written exams. • Nursing care plan. • Assignments

6	Integrate nursing research, evidence-based practice, and quality improvement principles in the provision of nursing care to individuals, families, communities, and populations.	• Safe and Effective Care Environment. • Physiological Integrity. • JNC Standard 1 (Performance) • JNC Standard 2 (Knowledge) • JNC Standard 4 (Professional Development).	• Interactive lectures • Journal clubs. • Open discussions • Simulation. • Reflection. • Clinical training. • Role play.	• Quizzes. • Oral and Written exams. • Assignments. • Research projects.